RESORT
FUERTEVENTURA

Welcome to Fuerteventura, the tranquil jewel of the Canary Islands. This island, declared a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve, captivates with its more than 150 kilometers of white-sand beaches, turquoise waters, and year-round spring-like climate, with average temperatures of 22°C and more than 3,000 hours of sunshine per year.

Dunas de Corralejo Resort is a complex comprising 242 homes, commercial premises, swimming pools, a communal building, gardens, and interior pedestrian areas.

All of this is located on a 21,297 m² plot, with a constructed area of 21,371 m², of which 14,837 m² corresponds to the homes and their communal areas and 6,534 m² to the commercial and service areas and their communal areas.

It is located on the coast, on the regional road from Puerto del Rosario to Corralejo, located in "Parque Holandés," in the municipality of La Oliva, on the island of Fuerteventura.

The island has an international airport just minutes from the main tourist areas, with direct flights from multiple European cities. Perfect for both short breaks and extended stays.

It is a paradise for sports and adventure lovers. Thanks to its constant wind and crystal-clear sea, it is recognized worldwide as a top destination for:

Windsurfing and kitesurfing (especially in Sotavento and Corralejo)

Surfing on beaches like El Cotillo or Playa del Hierro

Hiking and cycling in volcanic landscapes and coastal trails

Scuba diving and snorkeling with a rich marine life

Golf and horse riding in unique natural settings

Fuerteventura is also a destination of wellness and tranquility. Find oceanfront yoga retreats, natural spas with local aloe vera, and traditional cuisine combining seafood, internationally award-winning goat cheeses, and volcanic wines.

242 Apartments with a Minimalist and Beachy Style

These 242 apartments have been designed with a minimalist aesthetic that incorporates the freshness of a beachy style. The spaces are spacious, bright, and functional, featuring neutral tones, natural materials, and subtle decor inspired by the coastal environment. Each unit offers a serene and contemporary atmosphere, ideal for enjoying seaside living with elegance and simplicity.

Whether you're looking to unwind or enjoy the Canarian lifestyle, Fuerteventura is a safe bet for beauty, tranquility and opportunity.

Here, every day is an invitation to live a better life.
